County Science Day

I would like to give a big thank you to Tom Keppie, Kara Selby, Isobel Lamb and Ryan Hambridge for representing Gosford Hill School at the annual County Science Day on Wednesday 25th January.

Our students competed against sixteen other schools in various activities and Ryan managed to get into the final with his 'Coke Can racer'. Not only did they have the chance to show off their scientific knowledge and skills, but they had the opportunity to interview a number of scientists and meet with Nick Gibb MP, the School's Minister.

Well Done!

Ofsted Inspection

Ofsted inspectors visited our school on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Four inspectors led by a lead HMI investigated all aspects of the school's performance.

The official report will be published just after the February half term holidays. We are unable to comment on the details of the inspection until then. It was a very productive process and every parent will be sent a copy of the final report.

GIFTED AND TALENTED SPORTSHALL ATHLETICS

Three schools took part in the Gifted and Talented Sportshall Athletics competition this year. The children were invited to two taster sessions prior to the competition to practice the events. The competition was our first in the Olympic Year and there were some excellent performances. St Thomas More were the eventual winners with Edward Feild in second place and West Kidlington in third. St Thomas More will go forward to represent Kidlington in the Partnership Final in March.

Leaders from Gosford Hill School did a tremendous job in their roles as officials and Beth Hawtin promoted Oxford City Athletics Club.
