

Sociology A level from 2015

The units to be studied are

Family - what roles do families play in society and how have they changed

Education – what role does education play in society?

Beliefs in Society – why do people have beliefs? How does this affect society?

Crime and Deviance – why do some people not conform to society's norms?

We also study Research Methods in context, usually as part of the Education and Crime modules